CONFIDENTIALITY

You may be aware of the Data Protection Act, and also the doctors' code of practice. This means that without specific permission from the patient, the doctors, nurses and Admin Team are not entitled to discuss medical issues, or give information (even whether someone has an appointment or if their prescription has gone to the chemist) with anyone else – even their nearest and dearest!

PLEASE HELP US

by dropping in a signed and dated note stating who is able to ask for what information on your behalf.
